Don't Get Ripped Off – Scams workshop in partnership with Dept of Consumer Protection

Forty Five seniors attended a free scams workshop held at the Department for Sport and Recreation building in Leederville. SRCWA conducts free workshops in partnership with Department for Commerce and is supported by Telstra. Our thanks go out to Merinda from Department for Commerce and Luke Walsh Telstra Carousel for their invaluable knowledge and advice. Remember “If it seems too good to be true ... it probably is.” Always question the validity of requests for personal or financial information.

SRCWA ANNUAL SENIORS CAMP AT CAMP QUARANUP –

Monday 1st February 2016 saw some forty six campers attend SRCWA 2016 Camp Quarunup in Albany. Eileen Stark, camp Coordinator, SRCWA Vice President Phil Paddon, his wife Pat, along with Rob & Jo Lucas joined camp participants for the presentation of a park bench commissioned in memory of former Camp Coordinator and SRCWA Perth Branch President Frances Laws. The presentation was held during an evening sharing the fun times had with Frances, including reflection on many years of great memories.

During the camp, participants took part in numerous activities such as bush walks, canoeing, craft, belly dancing, table tennis, archery, and boot scooting. A day out to the Old Farm at Strawberry Hill with the National Trust was also a highlight of the camp. The last night of the camp culminates with “The Quarunup Concert” belly dancers and boot scooters show their talent thanks to Pam Gatt, there was no shortage of funny stories, funny skits and musical acts. SRCWA would like to thank camp Coordinator Eileen Stark and her group of dedicated volunteers and helpers for all their hard work in making the SRCWA Camp Quarunup an event many look forward to annually.
